Saved Girl's Life

"I want to tell you what wonderful benefit I have received from the use of Thedford's Black-Draught," writes Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky.

"It certainly has no equal for a gripe, bad colds, liver and stomach troubles. I firmly believe Black-Draught saved my little girl's life. When she had the measles, they went in on her, but one good dose of Thedford's Black-Draught made them break out, and she has had no more trouble. I shall never be without

BANK ROBBER DIES FROM WOUNDS RECEIVED

Hugo, Okla., Dec. 28.—Clard Jones, 19, died here Tuesday as the result of being shot Monday afternoon by L. G. Webb, cashier of the Bank of Grant, Okla., a few minutes after Jones and Makeler McFarland had robbed the institution of $1,000.

Jones' neck, back and hand were perforated with eleven bullets from the cashier's shotgun. Jones is survived by a young wife. He was raised on a farm near Hugo, and his wife is the owner of 500 acres of land.

Makeler McFarland, 23, also seriously wounded, was buckled from the cashier's gun having led him in the bank. McFarland has a chance to recover, say the attending physicians.

The two robbers were brought to Hugo Monday night from Grant.

Shortly after 2 o'clock Monday afternoon the pair entered the Bank of Grant, behind the cashier's hands, took the institution of its money, placed the cashier in the bank's vault, shut the vault door and left.

Cashier Webb, however, the man that found his hands and arms in a shotgun that had been snatched in the vault, he followed the robbers. A short distance from the bank building Webb opened fire on the bandits, who were afoot, and both fell. The bank's money was recovered.

Several months ago, the bank was robbed, and since that time the cashier has kept a loaded shotgun in the bank's vault.

WOULD OUST YOKAUM; CHARGES AGAINST CHAIRMAN

St. Louis, Dec. 28.—Former Judge Henry S. Priest, one of the large stockholders of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad (Frisco) system, who represented a large number of the other stockholders in the reorganization plans, has stated in a carefully worded statement that he would begin his fight this week to remove F. P. Yoakum, chairman of the board of directors of the road. He said he would file charges before the board of directors, and that if the board failed to act, he would file a bill in the circuit court to have Yoakum removed as an "unfaithful servant."

The break between Priest and Yoakum, who previously were close friends, which is publicly heralded by Priest's statement, is expected to cause a sensation in general financial as well as railroad circles. Priest told that he had invested heavily in Frisco shares on the advice of Yoakum and did so unquestionably because he regarded Yoakum as a friend. He said he had lost heavily as a result and that his investigations, since the road went into a receivership on May 27, 1913, has convinced him that Yoakum wrecked the property by transactions which gave him a large personal monetary profit.

COLDS NEED ATTENTION

Internal throat and chest troubles produce inflammation, irritation, swelling or soreness and unless checked at once, are likely to lead to serious trouble. Caught in time, Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey loosens the phlegm and destroys the germs which have settled in the throat or nose. It is soothing and healing. Pine is antiseptic; honey is soothing—both together possess excellent medicinal qualities for fighting cold germs. Insist on Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. 25c, all Drug lists.

Why You Should Use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Because it has an established reputation, won by its good works.

Because it is most esteemed by those who have used it for many years, as a cough remedy, and is best acquainted with its good qualities.

Because it loosens and relieves a cold and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition.

Because it does not contain opium or any other narcotic.

Because it is within the reach of all. It only costs a quarter. Obtainable everywhere.
